

HOLY FIRE 2019

Friday, October 18 and Saturday, October 19

9 a.m. – 3 p.m.

Credit Union 1 Arena

525 South Racine Avenue, Chicago, IL 60607

Join high energy musicians, inspirational speakers, exhibitors from around the country, and thousands of youth from across the Archdiocese of Chicago for the fourth annual Holy Fire, a day long youth conference that brought over 9,000 students from 154 schools and parishes together in 2018. Sixth through ninth graders will be challenged to participate in activities centered around prayer, witness, and joy that perpetuate the concept of becoming missionary disciples who are not afraid to witness the faith.

Cardinal Cupich expects all schools to participate. For more information about Holy Fire, scholarship opportunities, and to register, please visit holymfirechicago.org.

2019 SPEAKERS

Father Rob Galea
Keynote Speaker

Fr. Rob Galea is an ordained Catholic Priest who currently serves in the Diocese of Sandhurst in the Australian province of Victoria after migrating to Australia from his home country of Malta. He has been producing music for over a decade, and in that time has released several projects and amassed an international fan base. Additionally, Fr. Rob has also written several songs for various campaigns and international conferences.

Galea and his team currently minister to over 400,000 young people each year, carrying Christ's message of hope to all they encounter. Fr. Rob's passion is to draw others to the heart of God, and he believes that music is an important instrument in helping people understand the need for intimacy with God. Fr. Rob has released seven music projects to date, all while fulfilling his duty as a priest.
