WHAT WE DO

We support Ugandan organizations by partnering with local leaders to improve education, employment, and agriculture within their communities.

WHY WE DO IT

We envision rural communities where local leaders are the ones who generate positive change, not those of us coming from the outside. Let Us Move Mountains builds relationships with community leaders in order to financially and spiritually empower them as they work to overcome oppression and create opportunities for those they serve. They know what their communities need and they dedicate their lives to it.

CHANGING THE STATUS QUO

Uganda is full of organizations started by Westerners who went believing they knew how to fix poverty. Because we don't share their lives and their struggles, we don't know what is best for their particular needs. LUMM's purpose is to discover what communities need by talking to local leaders, and supporting them in their dreams to empower their own people. We do this by identifying partners, establishing a contract stating what each partner will contribute, including a timeline and budget, and making a plan to work together for a few years before we phase out to work with other partners.

KIHARA FARM PROJECT

PARTNERSHIP WITH YOUNG POSITIVES EMPOWERED TO ADHERE

An association of children living with HIV and AIDS

Kihara Farm will be a gathering place for adults and children living with HIV to come together to share experiences and positive living practices.

The children currently do not have a place to gather, and the experienced adults willing to guide them have only a small rented space.

Specific activities include:

- Instruction on the importance of access to treatment
- Counseling services
- Home-based counseling and support
- Training in Income Generating Activities for self-sustainability and financial literacy trainings
- Monthly meetings for information and experience sharing
- Monthly praise and worship gatherings
