What talents and abilities would you bring to the CCHD internship program?

What impact should our faith have on the world around us?

What difference does faith make to your work and perspectives around poverty?

What is one thing everyone should know about Catholic Social Teaching and why?

Pope Francis stated: "It is not enough to offer someone a sandwich unless it is accompanied by the possibility of learning how to stand on one's own two feet. Charity that leaves the poor person as he is, is not sufficient. True mercy, the mercy God gives to us and teaches us, demands justice, it demands that the poor find the way to be poor no longer. It asks — and it asks us, the Church, us, the City of Rome, it asks the institutions — to ensure that no one ever again stand in need of a soup-kitchen, of makeshift-lodgings, of a service of legal assistance in order to have his legitimate right recognized to live and to work, to be fully a person."

What is Pope Francis saying? How are you responding to this challenge in your life?

Describe any instances through which you have been exposed to poverty in the United States first-hand, either as part of your life or in your experiences with others. How did such experiences help shape your perspective about poverty?

What else do you feel we should know about you?

CCHD has a particular interest in helping low-income Catholics to participate in a practical learning experience that ordinarily would be out of their reach due to financial limitations. Please use the 2017 federal poverty guidelines at aspe.hhs.gov/poverty-guidelines to answer the following questions. CCHD defines “low-income” families those who earn up to twice the federal poverty level.

For example, using this formula:

- A family of four that earns under $49,200 annually is considered low-income.
- A self-supporting individual with no dependents who earns under $24,120 annually would be considered low-income.

Please answer question 1 and either question a or b:

1. Can someone claim you as a Dependent on his or her federal income tax return?

Yes No

a. If yes, is that person “low-income”?

Yes No

b. If no, are you “low-income”?

Yes No

Explain Below (Optional)

Section VI: References

Please list three people who know you well and are able to judge your general character, motivation and qualifications for becoming a CCHD intern. It is best to choose someone who has seen you work in a professional, volunteer, or ministry based setting, for example: employers, educators, a minister or a religious.
