

World Mission Sunday 2021

Social Media Posts

Image 1

Tessie Andros lights a votive candle at St. Joseph's Church in Lebanon. She and many other Christians, both migrants and refugees, continue to rebuild and heal after the August 2020 explosion in the Beirut port. World Mission Sunday is October 24. Join our parish in praying for and supporting global mission. Donate through our parish or at www.WeAreMissionary.org/wms. #MissionSunday2021

Image 2

Patients have begun to return for treatment at the Mendida Medhanialem Clinic in rural Ethiopia. Sister Dinkenesh and other Sisters of Divine Providence run the clinic, which offers services to families who are not able to afford treatment at public health care centers. World Mission Sunday is October 24. Join our parish in praying for and supporting global mission. Donate through our parish or at www.WeAreMissionary.org/wms. #MissionSunday2021

Image 3

People stand socially distanced in the food distribution line of the Jesuit Refugee Service in Addis Ababa, capital of Ethiopia. Refugees from many African regions live in camps and deal with daily food insecurity. World Mission Sunday is October 24. Join our parish in praying for and supporting global mission. Donate through our parish or at www.WeAreMissionary.org/wms. #MissionSunday2021