

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

FIRST EUCHARIST RETREAT

Leader's Guide

INTRODUCTION

Welcome! The goal of this leader's guide is to provide a comprehensive list of retreat ideas and provide a sample retreat outline for parish catechetical leaders in the Archdiocese of Chicago who are in the process of planning a retreat for their first Eucharist students and/or families. This guide has been created as a resource for parishes given the challenges of the pandemic and is meant to be flexible enough to plan a retreat that aligns with your current parish programming.

Throughout the leader's guide you will find numerous resources as well as possible layouts for designing a personalized and meaningful retreat experience. Parish leaders are encouraged to select the options that are best suited for your faith formation families. If you have already developed an idea of your own that is not listed within this guide, do not hesitate to include that in your retreat.

As you work through the leader's guide and use it to organize your retreat, please know that you, your team, your parish community, and all your first Eucharist families remain in our prayers during this important time of preparation. If you run into any problems, have any questions about the leader's guide, or would like to talk to someone about your retreat ideas, please reach out to your Lifelong Formation Coordinator or Deborah Breakey, Sr. Coordinator for Children and Family Ministry at dbreakey@archchicago.org.

RETREAT FORMAT

Your retreat can take place as one session or you can have multiple “mini-retreat” sessions depending on the structure and capabilities of your parish faith formation program. You may want to consider including retreat sessions, prayer, or activities that may take place in a combination of virtual, in-person or at-home settings.

General Preparation Tips for ALL Retreat Formats

- Be creative in your planning – you do not want the retreat to simply feel like a longer class for your students. The more engaging, interactive, and prayerful the retreat is, the more it will set this experience apart from a typical faith formation class.
- Remember to include prayer throughout every phase of your planning and your retreat. Be open to the Holy Spirit’s guidance and direction for your retreat. Some aspects of your retreat may not turn out exactly the way you had envisioned them, but you can be assured that under the guidance of the Holy Spirit everything will work according to God’s plan.
- Determine how many catechists/volunteers are needed on your retreat team (e.g., for assembling retreat kits, technology assistance, etc.).
- List materials needed and prepare the materials and craft supplies needed well ahead of time.
- Create retreat packets (if needed) which would be distributed before the retreat and could include craft supplies, a prayer card, a retreat journal, activity hand-outs, a snack or anything else that is within your budget.
- Determine and schedule the time(s) and place(s) for the retreat.
- Design a flyer or write an email to inform parents of the details of the retreat.
- Create a retreat presentation that will be used by catechists and/or parents with a tool such as PowerPoint (template).

Tips for Virtual Programs (Catechist Led)

- When planning a completely virtual retreat, remember to:
 - Limit the timeframe of the retreat to avoid screen fatigue
 - Require parent participation to help children fully participate in activities
 - Provide retreat packets to be picked up ahead of time or email printable pdf activity hand-outs
- See the end of this document for additional tips for virtual retreats

Tips for In-Person Programs (Catechist Led)

- When planning a completely in-person retreat, remember to:
 - Include opportunities for parents to participate
 - Schedule the retreat at a time that is convenient for most children and families
 - Include at-home activities to engage parents in their child’s faith formation

Tips for At-Home Programs (Parent Led)

- When planning a completely at-home retreat, remember to:
 - Host a parent meeting to provide clear retreat details and directions for parents
 - Provide a list of materials needed or retreat packets to be picked up ahead of time
 - Create presentation materials for parents with Google Docs or PowerPoint

Tips for Hybrid Programs (Catechist and/or Parent Led)

- When planning a hybrid retreat, remember to:
 - Incorporate multiple-session options and clearly communicate the details of each
 - Clearly define roles and expectations of catechists, parents, and students
 - Give clear directions for at-home activities

PARENT PARTICIPATION

No matter what retreat format you choose to use, parent participation and partnership will greatly improve your retreat experience and impact. Retreat preparation must include making sure parents are prepared for the multiple roles they may have throughout the retreat. The goal of this preparation is to help parents grow in their knowledge and understanding of the faith, feel comfortable with their role in the retreat, and feel equipped to engage in faith conversations with their child.

Pre-Retreat Information for Parents

- Share a letter or email with parents explaining what a retreat is and what the goals and purpose are of your first Eucharist retreat
- Host in-person or virtual parent meetings to equip parents to either partner with you during the retreat or to lead the retreat at-home. Consider offering multiple parent meeting times to accommodate busy schedules. Topics to address may include (but are not limited to):
 - A review of why it is necessary to partner in children's faith formation
 - Your specific faith formation program retreat details
 - Education for parents on the history of the Eucharist and the parts of the Mass
 - Reinforcing the importance of Sunday mass attendance as a family
 - Clear directions related to the parent's role during the retreat
 - Clear directions for each activity included in the retreat
 - What to expect during the retreat (or clear instructions for at-home retreats)
 - The proper way to receive the Eucharist
 - What will happen on the day of First Eucharist (including parish guidelines)

Parent Collaboration

The Directory for Catechesis reminds us that, “the Church is called to cooperate with parents through suitable pastoral initiatives, assisting them in the fulfillment of their educational mission’ to become above all the first catechists of their own children.” (124) Therefore, we encourage you to engage parents and trust them with the pieces of your first Eucharist retreat that you are asking them to play a role in. If you're looking to include some specific tasks for parent collaboration for at-home retreat activities, you may want to invite families to do some of the following:

- Complete an activity packet or a journal and return it to the Faith Formation Office
- Take a photo of a completed craft activity and email it to the student's catechist
- Fill out a Microsoft or Google Form for feedback
- Schedule a virtual group discussion following assigned at-home retreat activities

PLANNING TOOLS AND SAMPLE RETREAT FORMATS

Each of these sample retreats are adaptable for any program format (in-person, at-home, virtual, hybrid). You may also decide to cover certain aspects of your retreat in a variety of those formats. For example, you may have a 1-session retreat that is held virtually, and then you may instruct students/families to complete the final activity of the retreat (e.g., a craft in the 1-session sample below) at-home after your virtual session.

The following sample retreats may be used as they are for your retreat. However, to plan your own retreat, we recommend using one of the templates of the following tables which can be found here. You are encouraged to add specific details to one of the templates as you plan your retreat.

RETREAT TOPICS

TOPIC PURPOSE

SUGGESTED RESOURCES

Main Lesson

To teach about Christ's Real Presence in the Eucharist and help children become familiar with the Church, the sanctuary, and the Mass.

Talk about the importance of going to Church each Sunday and how giving praise and worship to God is the most important thing that we can do. By showing God this act of love, He meets us in the Eucharist, the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of His Son Jesus Christ and gives us the grace of communion with God by entering our body. With Jesus within us, we can go out and be like Jesus in how we love and help others.

Have a teaching mass for students and parents (recorded or in-person).

Discuss the 4 ways Jesus is present in the mass.
