Join the CRS Rice Bowl Movement in 2019!

Are you ready to encounter Lent 2019 in your parish or school? Whether CRS Rice Bowl is a tradition in your community or if you are considering participating for the first time, these tips will help you prepare for a season of encounter.

- Talk to your pastor or principal about CRS Rice Bowl – as a leader, your pastor or principal can become a champion of CRS Rice Bowl, especially if they see enthusiasm amongst their community.
- Educate yourself on the many facets of CRS Rice Bowl and its local impact on the Archdiocese of Chicago by visiting archchicago.org/CRS.
- Talk to your friends, family, and parish community about Catholic Relief Services and what the CRS Rice Bowl Program means to you.
- Register your parish or school for CRS Rice Bowl materials by contacting Gustavo Arreguin, CRS Coordinator, at garreguin@archchicago.org or 312.534.8604.
- Follow the Human Dignity and Solidarity Facebook and Instagram pages for regular updates.
