Pastor: _____ Parish: _____

☐ Attend National Migration Week Mass 2019: Have a parish ministry group attend National Migration Week Mass on Sunday, January 6, 2019, at 5:15 p.m. at Holy Name Cathedral. Please indicate ministry names and approximately number of attendees: _____

☐ Concelebrate National Migration Week Mass 2019: I will join the bishop in presiding at National Migration Week Mass on Sunday, January 6, 2019, at 5:15 p.m. at Holy Name Cathedral. The Immigration Ministry will follow up with additional information regarding your participation.

Activities During Migration Week (January 6–12, 2019)

☐ Epiphany Sunday and/or National Migration Week: Use the Homily helps in your toolkit to reflect with your parish community on how to welcome our immigrant sisters and brothers.

☐ Mass/Prayer Vigil: Dedicate a Mass or hold prayer vigils for DACA recipients, young adult immigrants, and all immigrant families who live in these times of uncertainty. Please indicate dates: _____ and times _____.

☐ Prayers of the Faithful: Pray for immigrants and refugees during National Migration Week using the Prayers of the Faithful found in your toolkit.

☐ Bulletin Inserts/Ads: Print the bulletin inserts in your weekly bulletin in January to create awareness about immigration to your parishioners.

☐ Contacting Legislative Leaders: Encourage your parishioners to contact their members of Congress urging them to protect immigrants and refugees. Share the bulletin ad throughout the month of January with instructions on how to contact legislators.

☐ Host an Information Session or Panel Talk: Contact the Immigration Ministry for support and/or ideas to organize an information session. Contact: Elena Segura at 312.534.5333.

☐ Other: Please describe: _____

If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact Yazmin Saldivar-Perez at 312.534.8105 or at ysaldivar@archchicago.org.

Thank you for your support and companionship.
