

“The Hunting Ground” Discussion Questions

Entire Audience

- After seeing this film, what struck you, surprised you, or made you think?

Small Group Discussions

- Having seen this film, what are some things college students can do to be safe on campus? What can their parents or others in community to do help them be safe?
- Many of the sexual assault survivors who tell their stories in the film experienced doubt, disbelief, or reprimand from their university. Some survivors in the film were hesitant to tell their parents or others about their experience—or have never told anyone. What can a college student do if a sexual assault happens to him/her or a friend or roommate? What can a parent do if it happens to his/her child? Discuss.
- Finally, it’s good to be aware of the incidence of sexual assault on college campuses; however, the bigger question is “What can we do about it?” What can we do as individuals, as a community, and as a society to prevent sexual assault on college campuses?

For Personal Reflection

- For personal reflection: Having seen this film and participated in this discussion, what will be different for you in the way you think about this issue or what will it prompt you to do?
